Title: The Power of Pride: Stonewall and the Global LGBTQ+ Rights Movement

BACB CEs: 4 Ethics Credit

IBAO CEs: 4 EDI Credits

QABA CEs: 4 EDI Credits

This is a text-based asynchronous course.

Explore the pivotal events of June 28, 1969, when the Stonewall Inn in Greenwich Village became the epicenter of a historic turning point in LGBTQ+ history. Delve into the decades of oppression and cultural shifts that led to this moment, and discover how the courageous actions of individuals sparked a global movement for LGBTQ+ rights. From Stonewall to today's vibrant Pride festivals and marches, this course illuminates the key events and influential figures in the United States who shaped the trajectory of the LGBTQ+ rights movement worldwide.
